Civic Guards (Emergency) Act 1940

1) The Civic Guards (Emergency) Act, 1940 received the assent of His Highness the Maharaja on the 5th November 1940 and became law thereafter. This Act was based on the corresponding ordinance of British India. It was expected that some further action would be taken in British India before the expiry of 6 months of the promulgation of the ordinance and this was awaited before taking action here.

Flag 5

2) It is now found that by the India and Burma (Emergency Provisions) Act, 1940, a statute of the Imperial Parliament, section 72 of the Ninth Schedule of the Government of India Act, 1935 has been amended and the period of 6 months which is the normal life of an ordinance extended indefinitely. The British Indian Ordinance will therefore be in force till it is repealed or abrogated.

3) It is regretted that the statute was not noticed earlier.

4) Under section 31 of the Government of Mysore Act ~~are~~ Emergency Act can be extended by a further period of 6 months. Action will be taken ~~immediately~~ thereunder and a Bill will also be brought up before the ensuing R.A. & L.C. Sessions. An emergency measure continuing the original Act will if approved, be issued immediately as the Act has expired early this month. A draft is put up. Further action will be taken thereafter.

Submitted for orders.

5) Civic Guards Ordinance in British India was more subsequent to the passing of the India and Burma (Emergency Provisions) Act, 1940. Section (3) read with Section 3 of the latter Act will make it clear

9) Action should have been taken before now

10) This is not the first instance of delay. It is necessary to strengthen the Legal Section. Such I believe can be only one clerk

Subject.—

Promulgation of the Civic Guards (Emergency Continuance) Act.

The gracious assent of His Highness was accorded on the 5th November 1940 to the promulgation of the Civic Guards Act as an Emergency Act. This Act was based on the corresponding Ordinance issued earlier in British India (August 1940).

The British Indian Ordinance will continue to be in force until repealed or ~~till~~ for such time as the present state of emergency continues. It is considered desirable to continue the measure in Mysore also for a similar period of time. As the Emergency Act has expired and it will take some time for a regular measure to become law, it is proposed to extend the duration of the Emergency Act by a further period of six months under clause (a) of sub-section (2) of section 31 of the Government of Mysore Act, 1940. It is also proposed to place a Bill before the Representative Assembly at its ensuing session and introduce it thereafter in the Legislative Council.

The Dewan and the Second Member of Council are agreeable to these proposals. I solicit the gracious sanction of His Highness to the above proposals.

1. Statement of Principles of the Registration of Foreigners (amendment) Bill.

The definition of "foreigner" in section 2 of the Registration of Foreigners Act, 1940, does not indicate the nationality, after marriage, of a woman who was not a foreigner but is married to one. According to well-known principles of international law as well as under the British Nationality and Status of Aliens Act, a woman takes on after marriage, the nationality of the husband.

In order to clear doubts that might arise under the Act an explanation is proposed to be added to the definition of "foreigner" that a woman who is married to a foreigner shall be deemed to be a foreigner.

The Registration of Foreigners (amendment) Bill.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Registration of Foreigners Act, 1940, for the purpose hereinafter appearing;

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

1. This Act may be called the Registration of Foreigners (amendment) Act, 194 . Short title.

2. In section 2 of the Registration of Foreigners Act, 1940, the following explanation shall be added at the end of clause (a), namely;— Amendment of section 2, Act V of 1940.

"Explanation.—A woman who is married to a foreigner shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be a foreigner."
